

“Facing the Clay Mask” Workshop with Rita Marlier

Saturday, July 11, 2009
10AM - 3PM

Clay mask making techniques and ideas for your studio or classroom. Learn to extend basic facial forms to legible expressions and exaggerations in clay. Build on the fascination from ancient times to present with the emotions revealed in the face.

$50 PER PERSON

Lunch will be included
Clay provided

BRING ALONG

A few favorite clay tools, if you have some.
Hand towel
Big plastic bag

SPACE WILL BE LIMITED

Please email laura@eceramicsupply.com or call 800-723-7264 Ext. 204.

Rita Marlier is a sculptor and educator with 30 years of college teaching experience. Concurrently she has also taught classes for gifted high school students. She is currently making sculpture in her studio on the Chesapeake Bay in Norfolk VA. Her work is exhibited in galleries and museums along the east coast.

