

SOLD OUT !!

Mold Making for Ceramics Workshop with Seth Nagelberg

Saturday, March 13, 2010
10AM - 3PM

This workshop is an excellent introduction to making and using molds for slip casting and press molding.

- Learn when to use molds.
- How to select, mix and store plaster.
- How to divide and prepare models for mold making.
- Make single and multiple part molds.

Participants will make a one-piece mold of a cup during the class. Time will be set aside to discuss plans for using your new skills.

BRING ALONG

Your models or sketches to plan your projects.

SPACE WILL BE LIMITED

Please email laura@eceramicsupply.com or call 800-723-7264 Ext. 204.

$50 PER PERSON

Lunch will be included
Plaster provided

Seth Nagelberg is an assistant professor at Parsons The New School for Design in New York City, where he teaches ceramics to product design students. He founded Nail Mountain Studio in 2004 to pursue design, manufacturing and entrepreneurship.

